Safer Learning

Your rights and responsibilities

Rights

Personal safety is important, when you take part in any kind of learning. You have the right to be and feel safe. People should not harm or abuse you, or threaten to do this.

Responsibilities

Your responsibilities are to respect other people's rights to safety, and not to harm or abuse others or threaten to harm or abuse them

What should you do if you think you are being harmed or abused?

If you have any concerns regarding your safety or that of another, please contact the Safeguarding Lead as identified below:

Angela Range 0151 949 4929

Sefton Council on 0151 934 3737 (an operator will take some brief details so that you can receive a call back from adult social care).

In an emergency you can call 999 anytime
