Welcome:

At Sefton Community Learning Service, we aim to provide high quality adult learning programmes to help people make positive changes, support personal development and help communities to thrive.

We are pleased you have chosen to learn with us.

This handbook provides key information about Sefton Community Learning Service and is designed to assist and support you during your time with us.

Funding from the Liverpool City Region Combined Authority (LCRCA) Devolved Adult Education Budget finances the delivery costs of the majority of our courses, whilst other courses may incur learning fees.

The information that we collect through enrolment, learner records and surveys, enables us to secure the continuation of funding.

Sefton School Term Dates 2025-26

	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
Term commences	01/09/2025	05/01/ 2026	13/04/2026
Half Term Holiday	27/10/2025 – 31/10/2025	16/02/2026 – 20/02/2026	25/05/2026 – 29/05/2026
Term Ends	19/12/2025	27/03/2026	20/07/2026

Please note, your tutor will discuss with you dates for your course as these may vary from course to course, including learning taking place during half term dates.

Information, Advice and Guidance:

For general enquiries, information about our courses, how to enrol or course fees, please email our main office at Communitylearningservice@sefton.gov.uk or ring us on 0151 934 4546. More details about each learning programme are provided on our Course Information Sheets, which can be collected from the main office or downloaded from our website <https://www.sefton.gov.uk/community-learning>

As a learner with Sefton Community Learning Service, we will offer you confidential and impartial Matrix accredited information, advice and guidance (IAG) throughout your learning journey to help you achieve your goals and prepare you for your next steps. This includes:

- impartial advice to identify the right course for you and setting of suitable learning targets
- advice and support to overcome barriers to learning
- information about available pathways. Our staff will be happy to provide you with impartial information, advice and guidance (IAG) about progression opportunities. This includes information of further learning opportunities within our Service or with other learning providers, or to move onto paid employment or volunteering
- details of organisations that can provide you with specialist impartial IAG

Your tutor will give you advice at the beginning, during and at the end of the course.

You can read more about career paths, tips for completing job applications; CV writing and interviews at www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/careers

Learner comment:

"I had access to new opportunities regarding potential new career path/ change in career direction."

Opening hours:

Our office phone lines are staffed Mon-Thu 9-5pm (excluding public holidays) and Friday 9-4pm.

We deliver courses at different times, including some twilight and evening classes on Monday & Tuesday evening.

Car Parking:

We deliver courses at various venues across Sefton Borough. We offer limited free onsite parking at our main centre in Cambridge Road, Seaforth. For availability of parking at other venues, please ring the course venue directly.

Refreshments:

From September 2025, Unique Blend, our onsite café, will offer a fresh new menu and friendly service. As a learner you can request a free tea and coffee before or after your lesson.

The café opening hours are: 9:30am-3:00pm

Lost Property:

Any items found will be handed into the main office at the venue you attend, where it will be kept for 3 weeks.

Cancellation of Classes:

We intend to run courses as advertised, however there might be times when a course start might be delayed, or a course needs to be cancelled. In these instances, we will contact you as soon as we know and, when possible, offer you an alternative day or time.

If you are on a course and a lesson needs to be cancelled, we will contact you as soon as possible. Please make sure you provide accurate contact details at enrolment and inform your tutor if any of these changes during your course.

Please read our Fees and Refunds policy for your options if a course is cancelled by us.

Quiet room:

Where possible, we have allocated a quiet room for prayer or meditation which is available for staff and learners to use.

Free access to Microsoft Office 365:

At Sefton Community Learning Service we aim to ensure that all learning is inclusive, providing support and fair access to learning that ensures all learners have equal opportunities to succeed.

On selected courses, you will be offered free access to Microsoft Office 365 whilst learning with us. This will provide you with a secure email address and access to Cloud-based programmes for educational purposes.

Your tutor will advise you at induction if your chosen course is supported by Office 365 and provide you with useful handouts and guidance to help you navigate the platform and access your class.

Learner Volunteering Opportunities:

Throughout the year the Service provides opportunities for learners to volunteer in a range of positions. Volunteering with us can boost your CV and experience and we will provide you with training and a reference upon completion. If you are interested, please speak to your tutor for more advice and to arrange a short interview.

How to Contact Us:

For general enquiries and information about courses, fees and how to enrol.

For concerns regarding Safeguarding, contact the Designated Safeguarding Officer, Angela Range. Angela.Range@sefton.gov.uk or 0151 934 4546

If you are interested in joining our team of tutors, please complete our application form online or contact Angela Range (as above) for information.

For complaints or compliments contact The Head of Service, Lisa Grimes. Lisa.Grimes@sefton.gov.uk

If you would like us to deliver a course for your organisation or at one of your venues please contact our main office who will forward your request to the relevant member of staff.

Your Rights and Responsibilities:

Your Entitlement as a Learner:

As the provider of your course, we seek to ensure that:

- we provide a safe, accessible and pleasant learning environment
- you have the opportunity to tell us your views about your learning experience
- progression opportunities are available, internally whenever possible, and that they are explained simply.
- you are treated with respect by all staff and fellow learners

Code of Conduct:

Below, we outline the behavior and attitude expected from our learners to ensure a safe environment and success on the course. We ask you to:

- attend regularly and punctually. If you can't attend, please notify us
- show a positive attitude. Participate fully in class and submit work by the agreed deadline
- attend all planned examinations/assessments and ensure all work submitted is your own work
- respect and value the rights of all those you encounter during your learning experience
- adhere to SCLS policies and ground rules that are agreed in class
- always behave responsibly and safely and comply with the Acceptable IT Users policy
- inform us of any medical conditions which may affect your attendance, learning or that you feel we should be made aware of
- seek help if you need it and tell us if you have a disability or learning difficulty
- complete all relevant paperwork and surveys to help us improve our service
- follow all safety rules and help to make your place of learning a safer place by reporting any incidents or concerns
- restrict the use of mobile phones to emergency usage in class unless otherwise instructed by tutor

Misconduct

Our Learner Disciplinary Policy outlines the procedure for disciplining learners following misconduct.

The following are examples of behaviour which are considered as misconduct and may result in exclusion from your course:

- failure to follow the Health and Safety Regulations
- conduct which prevents, obstructs, or disrupts teaching, learning, or the administration of the business of the Service
- bullying, intimidating or using threatening behaviour or language
- failure to follow the reasonable instructions of a member of staff
- smoking, drinking or illegal use of drugs on the premises
- disorderly behaviour or the use of bad or abusive language
- causing damage to learning buildings, equipment, or furnishings
- interference with software belonging to or used by the Service, or misuse of computer facilities
- discriminatory behaviour or language which is racially or sexually offensive or offensive to those with disabilities
- violence or threat of violence
- any illegal act on or off SCLS' premises which may harm the Service
- failure to adhere to Service policies

Where learners are causing disruption to the learning of others, they might be required to leave the classroom and/or site immediately.

External Assessments and Examinations:

If you are enrolled on a qualification course, you will be expected to complete the relevant assessment, including potential external exams. We will notify you well in advance of the exam date so that you can plan to be available as exams may take place on a different day/time than your usual session.

If you require exam access arrangements, you must notify your tutor within the first 4 weeks of your course.

More information about exam and assessment processes and how to appeal if you disagree with the outcome can be found in our policies, available on our website or from the Admin office.

Students must submit work for assessments which is their own and not copied or paraphrased from another source such as an Artificial Intelligence tool, without being appropriately referenced, and ensure that the content reflects their own independent work.

Feedback:

We constantly aim to improve our Service, please let us know if you have any comments.

We love to hear from you about how we are doing and how we can improve. You can write your comments on a feedback card at any time and post it in the feedback box located outside the main office or email your feedback to us at... communitylearningservice@sefton.gov.uk

At the end of your course, we ask you to complete the Course Satisfaction and Impact surveys at the back of your Individual Learning Plan booklet. Your responses will help us improve and enhance the service we offer, as well as to secure future funding to continue to provide courses for the local community.

To enable us to measure the impact of your learning, several weeks after completing your course you may be contacted by our Admin team so that we can find out about any ways that your learning has benefited you. If you need information about other learning opportunities at this time, we will be happy to help.

Policies and Procedures:

Equality and Diversity:

At Sefton Community Learning Service, we are committed to Equality and Diversity in all our activities for everyone who learns and works here.

We expect everybody to be treated equally and with respect. We want all courses to be free from discriminatory behaviour, harassment, and bullying.

Please let us know if you need to access any of our documents/resources in a different format

Support for Learners

Additional support may be available to meet the individual needs of learners who may require specialist assistance.

If you have a disability or need additional support, you should, in the first instance, inform your tutor who will discuss with you your individual needs and make any reasonable adjustments to provide the support you require. Whilst we will try our utmost to accommodate your requirements, please note that we might not always be able to provide specific specialist support.

In addition, we promote equality and we support our learners by:

- offering a range of courses, in different settings and delivered in a variety of ways.
- providing information and advice before, during and at the end of your learning programme
- discussing your learning needs to find out your starting points, goals and aspirations
- challenging discrimination and extremism
- providing help with essential skills- using computers, literacy, numeracy, and English language
- providing free access to Microsoft Office 365 (terms and conditions apply)
- providing funding to support public transport travel costs to get to and from your learning centre, when studying for a qualification.

Health and Safety & Online Safety:

It is important that you are able to study in a safe and supportive environment. If you are undertaking an activity that requires specialist advice and guidance the tutor will provide this before commencing the activity. Learners and tutors have a duty to prevent injury to themselves or others, so please report any accident or hazard to a tutor or office/reception of your venue immediately.

There are a number of general health and safety issues that apply and these will be covered by your tutor at induction.

For information and advice on how to keep safe online, visit www.getsafeonline.org

Safeguarding:

Here at Sefton Community Learning Service we are committed to providing a safe environment for all our learners and staff. We do not tolerate any form of bullying or harassment (this includes cyber or social media bullying). Please note, users of the Service's network should be aware that internet activity is logged and that it is possible to trace any site visited by a user.

The Service recognises that we have a duty to facilitate opportunities for learners to explore and discuss controversial issues safely. There is no place for extremist views of any kind in our Service. We recognise that if we fail to challenge extremist views, we are failing to protect our learners. Therefore, all our staff receive specialist PREVENT training from the Home Office.

A safer recruitment policy is in place including pre-employment checks of all our staff that come into contact with Service users.

We have a clear process for reporting Safeguarding, bullying or harassment incidents and your tutor will inform you of this at induction. If you have a concern about a Safeguarding issue please contact our Designated Safeguarding Officer, Angela Range. angela.range@sefton.gov.uk - 0151 934 4546

Refund Policy:

Refunds will only be given if the course is cancelled by the Service.

Any other matters regarding course refunds please contact the Assistant Manager, communitylearningservice@sefton.gov.uk or ring 0151 934 4546

How to make a complaint:

We aim to deliver a good service and we hope you enjoy your time with us, however, if we fail to meet your expectations or you are not satisfied with any aspect of our service, we operate a fair procedure for dealing promptly and courteously with any complaints and we endeavour to acknowledge your complaint within 5 working days. We will inform you then if we need longer to resolve the problem or provide you with an outcome.

- If appropriate, please discuss your complaint with your tutor
- If this is not appropriate, please put your complaint in writing to the Head of Service, 53 Cambridge Road, Seaforth, L21 1EZ

GDPR Policy - Keeping your personal information safe:

What we do with the personal and sensitive information you provide us with?

Information you give to the Service on the enrolment form will be kept in secured rooms and in computers and used to claim funding from the Liverpool City Region Combined Authority (LCRCA) Devolved Adult Education Budget and registering you for qualifications. We will add your personal information and information about your course to the National Learner Record Service.

At times the Service and LCRCA will use the information you give but will not share personal or sensitive information without your consent.

SCLS or LCRCA may send you a survey to ask you about your course and how it helped you in your life or work. We will treat the information you give us confidential and it will be shared only with relevant staff within the organisation or with agencies related to your course or qualification.

We will never pass your information to others without asking you first and we will destroy your records when we do not need them anymore for audit purposes. At any point, if you change your mind and do not want us to use your information, please contact us in writing.

Organisations that will have access to your information are:

Sefton Community Learning Service - Sefton Council (SCLS) - to register your learning with Liverpool City Region and to contact you about your course.

Liverpool City Region Combined Authority (LCRCA) - we need the information you give us to claim funding and to get information about your learning.

Department of Education - to perform statutory functions on behalf of the Secretary of State.

Awarding Bodies - the Service will register you with an awarding body to allow you to get qualifications.

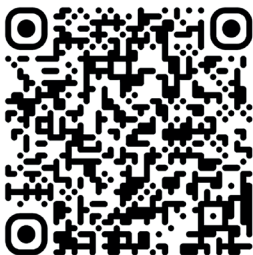

Sefton@Work - at times we ask Sefton@Work to give impartial advice and guidance to learners, so we share learner/course information including attendance and achievements.

Referral Agencies - at times, learners are referred to our courses by other agencies, such as Job Centre Plus. When requested, we provide them with information about your attendance and achievements.

Please read our Privacy Notice for further information.

What our learners said:

Intro to Creative Writing

This course has helped me discover my writing style and galvanised me going forward to continue writing and hopefully succeed in writing my novel!

Digital Photography

Excellent course, I enjoyed every minute. A very knowledgeable and personable tutor. Would recommend this course to others.

Level 2 Certificate Supporting Teaching & Learning

I really enjoyed doing the course. It has helped me to progress onto a teaching qualification as I have been able to get back into the habit of studying and I enjoyed it.
