

Remembering the people killed and hurt in Southport attack.

On Monday 29th July, a knife attack hurt and killed people in Southport. Some of those people were children.

A book of condolence has blank pages where people can sign their name and leave a short message to tell people how they feel.

You can sign this book of condolence in:

- Bootle Town Hall. Oriel Road in Bootle. Open Monday to Friday. 8.30am – 6pm.
- The Atkinson on Lord Street in Southport. Open Monday – Saturday 10am – 4pm.

There is an official place you can give money to help the people and their families if you would like to.
